Beyond S.M.A.R.T.

Why Setting Goals Isn't Enough for Success

Keynote Title: Beyond S.M.A.R.T. (This can also be modified for a Breakout or Workshop)

"There is No Secret to Success, but there is a Process."

Let's be honest, the best skill that someone can possess in business, and even in life, is knowing how to achieve their goals.

Most people know how to set goals (S.M.A.R.T. Model), but few people know how to actually achieve their goals, and that is what this session is going to teach your audience.

In this Keynote presentation, Mike Breeze (founder and owner of Made4Success) is going to share the exact process he uses to help organizations and individuals achieve their big goals, improve productivity and performance while reducing stress and wasted time; he calls this the G.O.A.T. Method of Success!

Your audience will learn:

- Get Specific: Your audience will learn the 6 things they must be specific on
- Open Minded: Why being open minded is so important to seeing opportunities
- Action: Why most people fail is because they never truly get started
- Talk: The words we use and how they affect our success or failure

Here is a recent testimonial from Tim O'Toole STI/SPFA National Leadership Conference:

"We recently hosted a leadership conference and had Mike as one of our speakers. Mike was a dynamic presenter that didn't disappoint. He worked with us to learn about our audience and determine what goals and takeaways they would want from his presentation. Mike was the top rated speakers of our conference. We would highly recommend Mike for your next event!"

This presentation is filled with actionable insights, practical tips, and plenty of laughter. Your audience will thank you for bringing me in!
