

What Leaders Say About Working With Mike Breeze

“We brought Mike Breeze in for a strategic planning session, and the experience exceeded expectations. He was professional, easy to work with, and delivered practical insights that are already creating lasting impact across our organization.”

—Yolanda Scott, Director, Oklahoma Workforce

“Mike Breeze was a valuable part of our retreat. His message resonated with our team and created meaningful conversations well beyond his session. One of the most telling moments came afterward, when a young team member shared how the session helped him clarify and articulate his career goals in a way he hadn’t before.”

— Sara Carter, Deputy Chief of Probation

“I’ve worked with speakers for events and conferences for many years, and Mike Breeze is someone I’ve brought back multiple times. He consistently delivers a professional, engaging experience that resonates with both audiences and event teams. His ability to connect through real stories and practical insights makes a lasting impression every time.”

— Randall Givan, Revenue Officer, TOPS Inc.

““Mike Breeze has been a keynote speaker for our organization multiple times, and he consistently delivers. His sessions are among the most well-received at our conferences, and his professionalism and preparation make him easy to trust with any audience. Mike brings real-world perspective to his message and ensures the content aligns with the goals of the event. We plan to continue working with him and regularly recommend him to others.”

— Cindy Robins, Chief Deputy Court Clerk

“Mike Breeze facilitated a complex session with a diverse group of stakeholders and brought clarity to a challenging process. He helped the group align around a clear plan of action, which ultimately enabled our client to implement a meaningful and transformative process improvement.”— Dave Ross, Founder & Principal Consultant, DMR Consulting
